

Jewelz

Original Neo-Soul

Jewelz is a band from Aachen/Cologne, playing original Neo-Soul music since 2013. The four musicians follow their own recipe in mixing the ingredients of modern Neo-Soul in an authentic way. By this they create complex yet catchy songs, that combine classic Jill Scott and D'Angelo vibes with a modern infusion, reminding of Robert Glasper or Knowler.

In 2019 Jewelz released their second EP "In Between". On this record Jewelz developed their style from the funky tracks of their first EP to a more electronic soundscape. The band around singer and songwriter Julia Walbergs likes to play around with grooves, jazzy harmonies and lyrics in between soulful melodies and spoken word. That leads to a fresh and creative Neo-Soul sound, leaving a lot of space for interaction and improvisation.

Julia Walbergs – vocals
Moritz Schippers – keys
Roman Wollenhaupt – bass
Moritz Baranczyk – drums
